RICHARD FOSTER DEAD

Richard H. Foster, aged 65 years and widely known in Kenosha died at six o'clock this morning after a few days illness from paralysis. Mr. Foster had been employed at the plant of the Simmons Manufacturing Company as a foreman and he had been taken sick on last Wednesday. A few hours after he had taken sick he became unconscious and he remained in this condition until his death came this morning. Many of the friends of Mr. Foster had not known of his serious illness.

Richard H. Foster was born in Gloversville, N. Y., Dec. 29, 1849. He was educated in Gloversville and for many years was engaged as a maker of glove boxes. For the past 16 years he had been a resident of Kenosha and for much of this time he had been employed at the plant of the Simmons company. He was a member of the Kenosha Lodge No. 47, F. and A. M., and of the Kenosha Chapter of the Eastern Star. A widow and one daughter, Mrs. Edna Burnham of Milwaukee, survive.

The remains will be taken back to the old home at Gloversville for interment. A short service under the direction of the Masons will be held at the Rutledge and Crossin Chapel at 1:30 o'clock Tuesday afternoon. — Kenosha, Wis., Evening News, 21st.
